

Ana Lucia Alonzo
director, Supply Chain Digitization
Starbucks Corporation

Ana Lucia is currently director, Supply Chain Digitization for Starbucks Corporation. She is a senior supply chain leader with more than 18 years of international experience, providing leadership and strategic direction in network design and supply chain planning, new product development, operations, continuous improvement and cost effective environmental performance. Leadership expertise in high velocity, time sensitive, fresh and CPG and Retail supply chains across Europe, North, Central and South America.

