

Matt Parry
SVP of Werner Logistics
Werner Enterprises

Matt Parry is the senior vice president of Werner Logistics, a key component of the company's portfolio of transportation services solutions. Parry is responsible for all of Werner Enterprises' fully developed intermodal, brokerage, freight management and global portfolio service offerings, operating in over 150 countries. He began his career at Werner in 1999 as the director of Operations for Dedicated Services. During his 14 years at Werner Enterprises, he has held leadership roles in both Operations and Sales within Dedicated, Temperature-Controlled, Intermodal and Werner Logistics. Prior to joining Werner, Parry spent nearly 10 years working in a variety of roles for Schneider National. Parry holds a Business Management degree from Indiana University-Purdue University in Indianapolis. He and his wife, Andra, live in Omaha, Nebraska, with their three sons. Werner Enterprises, Inc. was founded in 1956 and is a premier transportation and logistics company, with coverage throughout North America, Asia, Europe, South America, Africa and Australia. Werner maintains its global headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and maintains offices in the United States, Canada, Mexico, China and Australia. Werner is among the five largest truckload carriers in the United States, with a diversified portfolio of transportation services that includes dedicated van, temperature-controlled and flatbed; medium-to-long-haul, regional and local van; and expedited services. Werner Logistics' portfolio includes freight management, truck brokerage, intermodal and international services. International services are provided through Werner's domestic and global subsidiary companies and include ocean, air and ground transportation; freight forwarding; and customs brokerage.
