

Jill is the Vice President of Supply Chain Strategy for The Neiman Marcus Group. The Supply Chain Strategy team collaborates to define and implement current and future strategies that optimize the Supply Chain network. Along with Strategy, her teams include Partner Programs such as EDI and Partner Relations along with Industrial Engineering and Training. Jill has 26 years of experience with Neiman Marcus and over 20 years in Operations & Supply Chain. Jill has lead teams that have opened facilities, implemented Warehouse Management Systems, and have instituted multiple floor ready requirements that support Speed to Market initiatives. Her team leads the way to ensure the NMG Supply Chain and its facilities are ready for the future. Jill graduated from Colorado State University.