

CHRISTINA SANTINI
Chiquita Brands International
North & Latin America Strategic Sourcing
Manager

Ms. Christina Santini is currently North and Latin America Strategic Sourcing Manager in the Chiquita Fruit Solutions division headquartered in Cincinnati. She leads two operational projects in the Chiquita Fruit Solutions division, one focused on smallholder & certified sourcing for ingredients and consumer products and the second focused on the Waste to Energy platform in CFS encompassing renewable energy generation and plant energy efficiency. Additionally, she is co-leading an employee engagement initiative around Corporate Responsibility and sustainability.

Previously, Christina worked as a research project coordinator at the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations based in Rome, as a sustainability planner at Harvard University, and as a professional chef and baker in New York. She holds a Master in City Planning from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a focus in international development and sustainability in agricultural supply chains, and she has a BA in Urban Studies from Haverford College.

Christina is actively involved in an Appreciative Inquiry visioning process for the city of Cincinnati to develop a strategy and initiatives for large scale, sustainable transformation. She is also an avid runner, swimmer and soccer player and recently ran her first half marathon.
